MISSION

Missouri Torah Institute's primary goal is the development of bnei Torah through limud haTorah b'iyun, limud hamussar, a long term meaningful rebbe-talmid relationship and an achrayus for klal yisrael.

Our alumni exemplify middos tovos and derech erez and choose lives as bnei Torah, whether pursuing a life in chinuch and harbotzas haTorah or a professional career.

REBBEIM

Our rebbeim are vibrant, warm and approachable, and work with sincere dedication to help each student succeed. These talmidei chachomim are Torah leaders in character and in knowledge, and are well versed and trained in chinuch. Their sense of mission in helping build tomorrow's leaders of Klal Yisroel makes each truly exceptional. The understanding and acceptance they show the bochurim fosters a strong keshar with a relationship of mutual trust and respect.

TORAH

Iyun: Interactive shiurim and chavrusa learning guide students as they delve deeply to gain clarity and a profound understanding of the gemara. Critical thinking skills are developed through this process of in-depth learning.

Bekiyus: Shiurim and chavrusa learning expose talmidim to a breadth of gemara learning at a faster pace while developing reading skills to make a leining.

Halacha: Talmidim study mishna berura with the goal of amassing knowledge in practical halacha for everyday life. Bochurim learn how to independantly learn and understand the halacha from the study of the text.

Daily mussar study through shiurim and chavrusa learning focuses on the study of the classic mussar sefarim and their applications.

Additionally, a weekly shmuess and chazaras hashmuess assist talmidim in developing analytical skills by delving into mussar lessons gleaned from select ma'marei chazal.

VAADIM & GUEST SPEAKERS

Mussar vaadim focus on practical application and guidance through delving into mussar subjects. Guest speakers share their knowledge with talmidim on important topics.

MUSSAR

"What sets MTI apart is how the yeshiva prepares us for life. The yeshiva's goal is bigger than just teaching gemara or mussar; they build up the talmidim to become independent and give us the tools to learn, work on ourselves and be successful in whatever we decide to do, all the while maintaining a strong connection to Hashem and His Torah."

-Eytan Mankowitz, Alumnus, Class of 2012-13

CHEVRA

Our bais medrash is comprised of a group of exceptional young men who have created close-knit bonds in the warm and welcoming environment of the yeshiva. Achdus is developed as the bochurim form meaningful relationships while encouraging and supporting each other.

On out-shabbosim, bochurim can choose to spend shabbos at home, visit friends, or stay in the dorm. In addition, groups of talmidim are afforded the opportunity to inspire and uplift various communities while enjoying a change of scenery and a break as they spend shabbos together and recharge their batteries.

COLLEGE CREDITS: As a branch of RSA, we are a federally-accredited college. As such, we issue credits and transcripts, and offer degrees. MTI talmidim can earn up to 30 college credits for their first year of bais medrash. Federal financial aid is available to qualifying students.

MAGNIFICENT CAMPUS

In the summer of 2015, with great siyata dishamaya, MTI acquired an 8.65 acre, 120,000 square foot spectacular, sunlit, state-of-the-art campus.

The property can best be described as a five-star experience for students, both academically and recreationally, and is a crown jewel of Torah in the Midwest. Our website offers a video walkthrough tour of the stunning campus at www.missouritorah.org/our-campus.

DORMITORY FACILITIES

MTI's beautiful, self-contained campus offers comfortable dormitory rooms in its student housing wing featuring bright skylights in common areas with couches and lounging areas, a commercial laundry facility, barbershop and an infirmary.

LOCALE

Chesterfield, a serene suburb of St. Louis, provides an ideal backdrop for our yeshiva. The overall culture of the city has a classic, small-town feel that makes Chesterfield a safe and wholesome place to thrive. The local Jewish community is vibrant, warm and welcoming, and is home to the complete infrastructure of a frum community, from kosher establishments to day schools and kollelim.

The community of Chesterfield provides a close-knit locale with a high quality of life and deep-rooted values, and is home to our magnificent, state-of-the-art campus.
